Dear Praying Friends,

Sept. 2008

"To God be the glory great things He hath done." We must thank the Lord for the wonderful things that have happened this month in our lives. As Psalm 92:1 says, "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord."

This week I had the opportunity to teach a Comparative World Religions class at Crown College. Catholicism was the subject for the week. How fitting that I should have to study and refresh my knowledge about Catholicism just a short while before going to Brazil where a majority of people are Catholic.

About a week ago, the Lord prompted me to advertise ConhecendoDeus online in Brazil. I wanted to direct more traffic to the site, but was unsure how to do it. We have had a few people visit the site, but most visitors are from the churches we have visited.

After a week of advertisement, over 75 people from Brazil have been to the website. We have even had someone from Porto Velho visit our website. Wow! We never imaged we would reach someone in Porto Velho with the Gospel before ever getting there. Because of limits set, our ad only shows up for a few hours of the day. Imagine how far this could go.

This week I received an e-mail from someone in Brazil saying, "I want to know more about Jesus." Again, what an opportunity. I sat down and wrote out the Gospel message and sent it back. Keep praying that God would use this tool to touch the hearts of unsaved people.

Praise the Lord for answered prayers. Our schedule is completely filled from now until mid-November. Please keep praying that the Lord will open doors and we will be able to reach Brazil by February 2009. We are excited about what the very near future holds.

Pressing on,
