Dear Praying Partners,

January 2010

The Christmas season is past, but the summer months and holiday season are not over yet. Things tend to be a bit slower in January and February because of this. Many people are still going to the beach, partying, and prolonging the holiday spirit until the big "Carnaval" in the middle of February. Because of this, paperwork and business is a little bit slower at this time of year.

In light of this, we have been working hard to help John and Julie get settled. They arrived safely on the 29th of December and were greeted by a New Years fireworks display. (Brazil is known for making New Years a big celebration.) Now they have begun the long process of looking for houses. Prices have gone up since we got our house nearly a year ago. Rental property is rare compared to those for sale. Please pray they will find the house the Lord wants them to have.

This week is the last week I will be preaching in Osasco. We have enjoyed the time there and we were able to make more friends. The people there accepted us well. We have also had the opportunity to minister to several people's needs.

This last Sunday we had several visitors come to church. One was a man named Rivaldo and the other was a lady named Yuri. Yuri was brought by family members who attend another good church across town.

Rivaldo, on the other hand, came on his own because he drove by and saw the church sign. He is a member at a pentecostal church in Osasco. Basically he has been searching for the truth for about 15 years or so. He went from the Catholics to the Jehovah's Witnesses and now is in a charismatic church. After the service I spent about 30 minutes giving him the Gospel and fighting for his soul. He did not trust the Lord, but I believe he is close. Please pray for his salvation.

We are about to get back into our regular schedule. Amanda starts language school once again on Monday. She will be completely done in 13 weeks. Praise the Lord!!! She is working hard, and even volunteered to teach a children's Sunday School class for three or four weeks.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support.

Just a note about Porto Velho, RO

I have learned quite a bit about Porto Velho in Rondônia since my arrival here in Brazil. The church in Osasco has proved to be a help in that. I have met three or four people in the church that have lived in Rondônia. Rivaldo lived there for five years and has a son who lives there now. The Lord is opening doors as we press toward His calling!
