Following Paul's

Missionary Pattern
(Acts 14:21-23)

1. Evangelizing the Lost
2. Establishing Churches
3. Edifying the Believers
4. Entrusting Them to the Lord

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Friends,

October 2010

We are quickly reaching the end of another year! The Lord has been gracious to us this year. We are thankful for all His blessings in our lives. Life in and of itself is a precious gift of God. Yet we are most thankful for the eternal life which was offered to us through the precious blood of Jesus Christ.

As we approach this holiday season we are flooded with memories of yeas gone by and what precious times we spent with family and friends. Now we look to strengthen and encourage each other in the Lord amongst new friends and other missionaries.

PORTO VELHO

My trip to Porto Velho was very enlightening. I was there for less than 48 hours, yet the experience was enough to help me learn much. I spent about six hours on the back seat of a motorcycle riding around town with a national pastor. This pastor was a big blessing to me and helped me understand many things about the city.

Now I have a much better idea of what living costs will be in Porto Velho. This pastor also showed me some churches and helped me understand more of the spiritual need in the city and area.

RIO BRANCO

The conference in Rio Branco went very well. The time I spent with fellow missionary Stephen Doolittle and his family was very rewarding to me. It was a joy to hear his burden for the lost around that area, talk about a strategic way to train laborers, and find out how we can be connected when we move to Porto Velho.

BRASILÉIA

Another great part of this trip was the time spent with Pastor William and his wife Silvia. They had a great influence in my life when I was a teenager. I praise the Lord for the work they are doing. We have decided to post his weekly radio messages on our website so many more people can be blessed by what is going on there in that location.

In all of this, the Lord moved my heart for the area in which we will be working. I am anxious to get back up there and start, yet we must wait on the Lord's timing.

Thank you again for all of your prayers and support through this year. May the Lord bless you and give you a Merry Christmas and a New Year full of hope for what God can do in this world through you.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Tyler
