"He is able to save them to the uttermost" Hebrews 7:25

Dear Prayer Partners,

June-July 2012

Much has happened since the last time I was able to get a prayer letter out last. The Lord is working and we are glad to be a part of what He is doing.

We have moved to Ouro Preto do Oeste and are getting settled in our new house. There is always much work in moving to a new place. Over the past month, we have been opening boxes, unpacking our belongings, throwing many things away, and preparing our home for what the Lord has in the near future.

When we first arrived in Brazil in 2009, God supplied everything we needed. The only large appliance we did not own was a stove. God supplied that need in the house that we rented in São Paulo. That house also had built-in closets and some storage space. Now we are in a smaller house with no closets or appliances whatsoever. Yet, the Lord has once again supplied everything we need. We now have cabinets in the kitchen, a new stove, and closets either in the rooms, or on the way.

Looking back at all of this, we can only thank the Lord that He supplies every one of our needs. We cannot deny that He is at work in our lives.

John and Julie Kokenzie have safely arrived in the state of Rondônia. We were able to greet them this week as they arrived. Please pray the Lord will soon provide a car and a house for them here in our city. They are presently staying in Itapuã do Oeste which is about 150 miles north of us.

Continue praying also for the two Haitian men that came to the Lord a few months ago. They are hundreds of miles from us, but are still keeping in touch. They will soon receive their first Bibles in Creole.

Over the past few weeks the Lord has given me the opportunity to preach several times. In the beginning of July I preached at a retreat for teenagers. The Lord blessed and worked in many lives. I will soon post some pictures of that event on our blog. This past week, I also had the opportunity to preach for fellow missionary Tom Brewer at a preachers' meeting and in his church.

We have started making a few contacts and have made a few friends here, but we are looking forward to beginning a strong outreach in the near future. Pray that the Lord will prepare the hearts of the people and lead us to people who need to know the Savior.

Thank you once again for your prayers and support. We are greatly encouraged by your faithfulness.
