"He is able to save them to the uttermost" Hebrews 7:25

Dear Prayer Partners,

June 2013

"I form the light and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things." (Isaiah 45:7)

This is the day which the Lord hath made! There is no doubt about that! God is in control of all things. He knows all the events of any given day because He planned them. This does not mean that things are easy for us. It means that we must simply submit to His will and allow Him to guide us. We must realize that He has given us the Holy Spirit to guide us through each and every event.

We have been privileged to have my parents with us for about a week this past month. They were able to come up from São Paulo and visit us for a few days. Though there was difficulty with every turn of events to get them here and get them back, we enjoyed the time that they were with us. It has been over a year since we have seen any of our family even though we live in the same country.

In just a few weeks we will be down in São Paulo to renew our passports and will have an opportunity to see them again. We appreciate the influence of godly parents in our lives and the influence of godly grandparents on our children.

Amanda is returning to the US this week to visit her parents for a few weeks and bring back some schooling supplies for the boys. Please pray for Amanda as she travels. Also pray for all of us boys who will stay behind and be traveling in a few weeks.

This past month has brought many new challenges. We have spent many hours trying to plan our trips as every flight we secured has already been altered or cancelled. We have found the airport closest to us to be unreliable for scheduled travel. Flights are frequently changed and recently the runway has been sinking so only prop planes have been allowed to land. It is up to the city to repair the runway, but that could take a while.

A few weeks ago I traveled with a group of men to an Indian training center where they are instructing the native Indians of Brazil and then sending them back as evangelists to their own tribes. This was a great experience. We learned quite a bit about the work with Indian tribes while spending many hours with missionaries who work directly in the tribes. Please pray about this work. We have been invited to visit the tribes and are praying about an opportunity to do that in the near future.

Weekly we deal with people who want to know God. They are seeking Him and know they need Him in their lives. Many of those people are right here in Ouro Preto do Oeste. Pray that God would work in our city bringing people to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and that people would allow the Holy Spirit to do a work in their hearts. Pray also that we would uplift the name of Jesus as we work for Him.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support!
